

We need your help! Did you know this gentleman?

It is Dr. J. W. Fanning, who dedicated his life to community service and served on the Board of Athens Regional Medical Center.

Please help us find the individual who is worthy of receiving the “2008 J. W. Fanning Humanitarian Award”

There are four criteria for the deserving person:

- ❖ They must have made significant contributions to ARMC through time, interest, and commitment to the Medical Center and the community it serves,
- ❖ They must have made significant contributions, as a volunteer, in worthwhile community services that improve the health, welfare, and quality of life for area residents,
- ❖ They must have high personal standards in their life,
- ❖ They may be a physician, current or former Medical Center or Foundation Board or Committee Member, or citizen of the community, but may not be a health system employee.

The 2008 award recipient will be honored at the Annual Pillar Society Reception to be held May 6, 2008 at the Taylor-Grady House.

Nomination forms are available by calling the Foundation Office at 706.475.3301, on Ian, by email at arf@armc.org, or at the Foundation website: <http://www.armc.org/arf/jwffanning.shtml>.

The deadline for nominations is Friday, March 7, 2008.